

Napoli, Amalfi Coast and Capri

This eleven-day tour offers some of Italy's most spectacular sites. The tour starts in Napoli. With a private local guide we explore some of the most famous and interesting sites in the city. Next, we head south to the breathtaking Amalfi coast.

After spending one night in Paestum, we make our way to the beautiful village of Positano, where we stay for three nights. From here we visit many of the other jewels of the coast, such as Ravello, and Amalfi. We do more than see the sights; we discover how local products are made, like the beautiful ceramics, fabulous Mozzarella di Bufala and scrumptious limoncello. We enjoy the area by land: we hike the coastline from far above the sea and explore the hillside villages that are adorned by bougainvillea and wisteria.

One day we take a private boat excursion from the coast to the island of Capri. This is the most famous of the islands in the area, and has been a tourist destination forever – in fact it was a holiday destination for Roman Emperors – and continues to be for celebrities today. We stay on the island for three nights, to thoroughly enjoy the jaw-dropping beautiful scenery: wild flowers, fragrant lemon groves, vineyards, seaside wonders, etc.

On our way back to Napoli, we explore and learn all about the infamous village of Pompeii. We have a private archeologist to guide us through the ruins and bring the village back to life through stories and descriptions. Our last dinner will be in Napoli and a transfer service to the airport the next morning will be arranged for all departures.
